MAR COLLABORATION #LoveMyDog365

NOTES

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
31 Share one thing you have learned with a friend and invite him/ her to join the #LoveMyDog365 Movement.					1 Make a list of tricks you would like to teach your dog.	2 Select a normal daily behavior to randomly reward. Give a treat or toy and express your appreciation.
3 Replace the word "command" with "cue" and notice how it makes you feel when asking for behaviors.	4 Join one new community of like minded people.	5 Teach your dog to assist you with one daily task.	6 What is one novel experience you can share with your dog?	7 What is something new you would like to teach? Include 1 life skill, 1 trick, 1 game, and 1 enrichment activity.	8 List 3 ways your dog asks for support when he needs it? List ways you can respond.	9 Identify and rank your dog's preferred reinforcement. Be specific. Test at least one new option.
10 List 3 behaviors that your dog finds self rewarding. What is the motivation to continue? List 3 for yourself.	11 What is one thing you can learn from your dog about your own health?	12 Teach your dog to take part in putting on his collar, harness, or vest by putting his head through the opening.	13 Research one way you can support your dog with her social skills.	14 Identify one thing that frustrates your dog. What is one action you can take to ease or prevent some of that frustration?	15 Share one thing your dog has taught you about communication?	16 For the next 7 days spend 5 minutes playing 7 different ways and make one new observation each day.
17 Follow 1 new animal behaviorist on any social media platform/ blog/ podcast. Commit to learning something new.	18 Identify one boundary you expect others to respect with regard to your dog.	19 Teach your dog the names of his toys. Start with 1-2 and build up gradually.	20 Get curious about dogs. Make a list of questions you have. Ask one of them at your next vet appointment or learning session.	21 Research one way you can enhance your dog's diet.	22 Identify one of your dog's natural objectives and offer assistance in achieving it.	23 List one of your own behaviors that your dog does not like. Replace your behavior with one he does like.
24 Make a list of words and gestures you would like your dog to understand. Identify which ones you use with consistency.	25 Identify one way you can be an advocate for your dog and commit to following through.	26 Teach your dog to put toys in a basket. Each evening, clean up the toys together.	27 Share your favorite tip for living with dogs.	28 List your expectations of living with your dog. List your dog's expectations of you. Are they congruent?	29 What is your dog emotionally sensitive to? Can you accept her sensitivity and take actions to support her?	30 Bring your dog to work. (if permitted)